Weekly Newsletter

Class DB – We have learned new poems and playground chants with actions.

Class CW - We have had fun playing African games, including one with bottle tops.

Class NB – We have really enjoyed doing fractions and understood them!

Class GT – We researched, using books and the internet, famous religious people and then presented our findings to the rest of the class. We filmed the presentations.

Other News/Notes: We are in the West Briton again this week with an article about the Time Capsule being buried in the foundations of Roseland Parc. It was also featured on the news on ITV. The children from class DB and CW really enjoyed being involved.

DB won the 'tidy classroom' award again this week! Amanda Butfield has lost her watch, if anyone finds it please hand it into the office.

Certificate Winners:

Class DB – Molly King for her independent work.

Class CW - Jocelyn Hadden for her positive attitude and super writing.

Class NB – Elowen Gray-Roberts for her extra care and thought with her work.

Class GT – Sam Clark and Sophia Foley for their consistently high standard of work.

Golden Ticket Winners: Isobel Keat, Elowen Gray-Roberts and Yasmine Biddick
